

Press Release: Beach Body Butter® and Clamour Theatre Company Announce Local Partnership

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clay County, FL — October 30, 2025 — Beach Body Butter®, a local skincare brand known for its all-natural, cold-pressed mango butter moisturizers, is proud to announce a new partnership with Clamour Theatre Company, a nonprofit arts organization committed to professional theatre and cultural enrichment in Northeast Florida.

This partnership reflects Beach Body Butter's ongoing commitment to sustainability, inclusivity, and community engagement. Designed for active individuals of all backgrounds, Beach Body Butter products support clean skincare for every body—whether on the beach, in the studio, or on stage.

"We're thrilled to collaborate with Clamour Theatre Company," said Pearlie Harris, founder of Beach Body Butter. "Their dedication to creative expression and community mirrors our own values around wellness, accessibility, and environmental responsibility."

Beach Body Butter has begun rolling out its recycling and repurposing program, a key step in its sustainability journey. While refillable jars are still in development, the brand is actively working to reduce waste and promote eco-friendly practices.

For more information, visit <https://beachbodybutter.store> or follow @beachbodybutter on social media.

Media Contact:

Pearl Harris
Founder, Beach Body Butter®
info@beachbodybutter.store